LEVEL 1: BEYOND FAMILY CONSTELLATION

This training is a deep self-experience on one hand, while transmitting all theoretical and practical principles of systemic therapy on the other.

In this newly designed training we will go further than ordinary Family Constellation therapy by developing the understanding that our family members are not just the persons we are closely bonded to, but they also represent our own inner energy. During this course we will make the shift from the outside to the inside, from being focused on others to coming back to ourselves. We are the world.

We explore the energy fields a child is born into and how they form the layers of his mind. A therapist needs to learn to tune into such energy fields and in this way understand the behaviour and feelings of a client. A constellation is merely a method to make such energy fields visible and help one to understand them.

We will learn about the parent-child relationship (family of origin) and the man-woman relationship (present family) and then understand that the other is really an inner part of us.

Each participant will have the opportunity to experience the unconscious layers of his mind and in this way understand family and social conditioning, not only by seeing one's own constellation, but also by watching and standing in for others. The therapist will explain step by step what a constellation reveals, how to stay connected to an energy field and find the source of love. As our awareness grows our love and gratitude become deeper.

Some of the topics covered:

- ♥ Love and order in a family system
- ♥ Understanding bonding
- ♥ Resolving guilt and shame
- ♥ What supports love in the parent-child and the man-woman relationship
- ♥ The function of conscience
- ♥ The balance of giving and taking
- ♥ The difference between blind love and conscious love
- ♥ The interrupted movement to the mother
- ♥ The dynamic between victim and perpetrator
- ♥ Life, death and the unknown

Osho Family Constellation is based in meditation. It is rooted in a deep acceptance of life as it is rather than in any effort for improvement. When we can honour what is, therapy ends and meditation begins.

This training does not qualify one to practice psychotherapy as such, but enables anyone already working with people to expand their skills and broaden their understanding. It is for professionals and newcomers alike.

“ Half of your being consists of your mother and half of your being consists of your father. You are here because of them: if they were not here you would not be here. All that is happening to you is, in a way, because of them.....One has to become aware of this. - (Osho) -

Each participant will have the opportunity to put up his own constellation, and so will experience family conditioning and understand how it works. We will also learn by watching and taking part in other participants' constellations. The process of this work will be made transparent, as the therapist explains step by step, what is happening within each constellation and how the source of Love can be found.

“ When the family has been brought into its natural order, the individual can leave it behind him, while still feeling the strength of his family supporting him. Only when the connection to his family is acknowledged, and the person’s responsibility seen clearly and then distributed, can the individual feel unburdened and go about his personal affairs without anything from the past weighing him down or holding him back. ”

- (Bert Hellinger) -
