Intensive Training in Family Constellations & More

Part 1 - October 31 to 8 November-2026

with Svagito Liebermeister

 Apart from the learning itself, it is a week of important personal work. With a week of 2 healing and active meditations per day.

This is a New approach.

“This training is a deep self-experience on one hand, while transmitting all theoretical and practical principles of systemic therapy on the other”.

In this newly designed training, we will go further than ordinary Family Constellation therapy by developing the understanding that our family members are not just the persons we are closely bonded to, but they also represent our own inner energy. During this course we will make the shift from the outside to the inside, from being focused on others to coming back to ourselves. We are the world.

*We explore the energy fields a child is born into and how they form the layers of his mind. A therapist needs to learn to tune into such energy fields and in this way understand the behaviour and feelings of a client. A constellation is merely a method to make such energy fields visible and help one to understand them.

“We will learn about the parent-child relationship (family of origin) and the man-woman relationship (present family) and then understand that the other is really an inner part of us.”

I am attaching information you need about this training.

The hotel CARLOS III, in ALCANAR PLATJA: www.

<https://www.carlostercero.com>

*This Hotel closes for us.

All the rooms for us, are individual occupancy, and all have balconies facing the sea... It is about 6 to 12 kms from nearest towns, and this area has a microclimate. The beach is small and private.

Some people, after morning meditation jump-nude-into the sea because it is a “microclimate” and the weather is usually better than other places.

-So, bring casual comfortable clothes, for training, warm for daytime and meditations, warmer for evenings and also sport shoes because we may do some active meditation outside.

-If you are not interested, please respond: Cancel. Thank you for responding.

With Love, wishing you the BEST Vedanta Suravi
